JUDGES BIO:

Jonathon Diego — Miami, FL

Jonathon Diego is graduate of Braddock High School in Miami, Florida. He spent 6 years marching with the Boston Crusaders Drum and Bugle corps as a Baritone player, later teaching in 2004, 2010, and 2011 as a part of the visual staff. As a musician, he performed with the Greater Miami Youth Symphony and participated in the University of Miami Marching Band and Symphonic Band. In 2001, he toured Japan representing DCI America and Dynasty Musical Instruments.

Jonathon also marched winter guard with Braddock HS and Braddock Independent World, serving as the group's captain in 2005. Jonathon was a member of the Braddock color guards from 1998-2006, and has since been involved in multiple facets of the organization. He has toured professionally with Grammy winning, Spanish recording artist Jose'Jose as adancer, and performed at the Latin Billboard Music Awards in Miami, and World Music Awards in Los Angeles, California.

Professionally, Jonathon now runs an insurance adjusting company in Miami, specializing in residential loss consulting, and the adjusting of residential losses for multiple home owner insurance companies throughout the country.
